

Welcome to QuistMD – The Flexibility, Sports and Rehabilitation Clinic. Thank you for choosing us as your healthcare specialist! We want you to know what to expect during your visits to QuistMD.

Our Clinic is fee-for-service – payment is due at the time of your appointments. We will provide you with the completed forms and envelopes for easy submission to your health insurance company for reimbursement, but we do not submit forms for you. In general, patients are reimbursed between 50% and 75% of their costs, depending upon their health insurance plan. Below is a list of the typical types of visits and the costs you can expect to encounter when visiting QuistMD:

Type of Visit	Estimated Price Range*
New Patient Visit	$300 - $500
Follow-up Visit with Dr. Haggquist	$100 - $350
Therapist Visit	$120 - $160
Therapist Visit with Follow-up on the Floor	$160 - $260

*Prices may vary depending on types of procedures performed during visit

In addition to your primary therapy, we offer other services in which you might be interested:

- Fitting for custom orthotics
- Somatic re-education
- Home visits
- Trager® relaxation
- Therapeutic massage
- Classes and workshops

For additional information, please visit our website at www.quistmd.com or ask one of our staff members. Again, thanks for choosing us!
